

The READ Center Web Site Privacy Policy

Your privacy is very important to us. The READ Center respects your concerns about maintaining strict privacy. Any information that you disclose to us is kept in confidence.

When you visit our web site we do not capture personally identifiable information. We do not use "cookies" on our web site. Our Internet service provider collects information about the date and time when our web site was accessed and, if you linked to our web site from another web site, it records the Internet address of the web site from which you linked to our site. This information is collected to measure the number of visitors to our site and the addresses of the web sites from which our visitors come. The Internet service provider does not record the email address and other personally identifiable information of persons who view our web site.

We record personally identifiable information (name, email address, mailing address, city, state, zip code, and phone number) from those who voluntarily provide it. We accept donations through the mail and through PayPal. PayPal will ask you for some of this information and, if you send us a check, that check includes your account information. If you provide personally identifiable information to us, we keep the information confidential. We will only release your personally identifiable information if you have given explicit consent.

Our privacy policy only applies to information collected by The READ Center. If you link to another website from our website, you should read the privacy policy of the new website.

We do not sell, rent, share, or otherwise disclose mailing lists or other personally identifiable information with third parties. We maintain records of individuals who contact us for statistical purposes and for noting our efforts to provide information or assistance. However, we do not provide this information to anyone else unless you give us your consent.

If you have questions or concerns about this privacy policy, please call us at 804-288-9930 or email us at frontdesk@readcenter.org.
